Job Fair to Benefit Northern New Mexico Residents

Espanola, NM. December 7, 2006. There will be a job fair for Northern New Mexico residents on Thursday, December 7, 2006, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Espanola Campus of Northern New Mexico College. Job seekers should report to the Commons Area of the College's Administration Building to meet with prospective employers.

The job fair will be an excellent opportunity for residents from Santa Fe, Los Alamos, Rio Arriba, Taos, and surrounding counties to meet with employers who are seeking out new hires.

The New Mexico Workforce Connection, Northern Area, is partnering with the New Mexico Department of Labor, the Governor's Office of Workforce Training and Development, the Northern Area Local Workforce Development Board, and the Espanola Campus of Northern New Mexico College to host the event. For more information on the job fair, please call Louise Williams at 505-690-6577.

About the New Mexico Workforce Connection, Northern Area

The Northern New Mexico Workforce Connection is funded by the Northern Area Local Workforce Development Board. Their 10 One Stops are located in Santa Fe, Espanola, Los Alamos, Taos, Las Vegas, Mora, Raton, Farmington, Gallup, and Grants. The One Stops are staffed by career development specialists to offer free career and placement services to unemployed and displaced workers in the 10-county area. To register for any of their workshops or to learn more about their services, call (505) 473-5831.
