New Mexico Workforce Connection Partners with La Familia Medical Center to Help Meet Growing Demand for Workers in the Health Services Industry

Santa Fe, New Mexico. March 13, 2007. In keeping with their industry specific approach to career development and job placement, The New Mexico Workforce Connection, Northern Area, has teamed up with La Familia Medical Center to help screen potential applicants in the health services industry. As part of this effort, the Workforce Connection invited Kristine Kuebli, Director of Human Resources, from La Familia Medical Center, to appear at their WIA Orientation this Monday at 9:00 a.m.

Ms. Kuebli spoke to those in attendance about La Familia and the many benefits of working for this organization that is dedicated to providing high-quality and compassionate community health care, dental care, and health education regardless of one's ability to pay. Ms. Kuebli mentioned they are currently seeking professionals with excellent interpersonal skills for the following positions: patient services representatives, medical assistants, and a physician. Patient services representatives should be fluent in English and Spanish. Bilingual medical assistants and physicians are also a plus. Interested candidates can visit the Santa Fe One Stop for resume-building assistance.

The Santa Fe One Stop holds WIA Orientations every Monday at 9:00 a.m. and Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. to assist job seekers in the Santa Fe area. Job seekers will benefit from these orientations as they learn such skills as how to conduct job searches, create or update resumes, apply for jobs online, and interview and impress a potential employer. The Santa Fe One Stop is conveniently located at 2904 Rodeo Park Drive East, Suite 300, at the intersection of Sawmill and Rodeo Rd.

For more information on the open positions at La Familia or to learn more about the New Mexico Workforce Connection's myriad career development and placement services, please call (505) 473-5831.
